| IX. | New Business | A. Applications for Examination. 1. Aika Yamashita – Cosmetologist. The Board initially motioned to table the application pending receipt of the transcripts, which was provided after addressing this agenda item. Since the information provided in the transcripts does not clearly specify the hours attained for sanitation training, the applicant inquired if it would be possible to obtain additional information from the school to clarify this issue. The GBBC determined that the applicant would have to take a sanitation refresher course. Motion to disapprove due to lack of sanitation hours: A. Taitano; 2nd: R. Garcia-Santos. 2. | | | C. Application for Reciprocity | | | |
| | | 1. Randy O. Hipos – Cosmetologist. Upon review of the application, the GBBC determined that applicant did not qualify for reciprocity: did not take the NIC exam and did not have his license for two (2) years. The Board determined that he would have to submit applications for Examination and Apprentice. Motion to disapprove: A. Taitano; 2nd: J. Blas. | | | Unanimously Disapproved |

| | | E. Barber – § 18118. Eligibility and Qualifications for Barber License - Statute 1. Osias B. Pascual. NOTE: S. Manibusan-HPLO informed the Board that, it was her understanding, that O. Pascual was asking why he did not qualify to be licensed under the grandfathered clause per the mandate and that he was interested in taking the cosmetology exam. Upon preliminary review, the Board does not believe he met the timeframe to be licensed under the grandfather clause; however, the Board deferred any recommendation/decision since Mr. Pascual was not present at the meeting to address specifically what he is requesting of the GBBC. | | | Requires more Information from the Concerned Individual |
