

3 schools remain undefeated in boys rugby

Pacific Daily News

The number 29 was considered the magic number during the Guam Department of Education Interscholastic Sports Association High School Boys Rugby game Saturday at the George Washington field.

It started with the Father Dueñas Memorial School

Friars maintaining their early winning streak after taking down the Simon Sanchez High Sharks 29-5. Five Friars scored a try with Alex Sojo and Daryn Lujan scoring conversions. Sharks' Oshen Saralu scored the only try for the team.

Panthers

The next to finish at 29 were the Guam High Panthers as they swept the Southern High Dolphins 29-0. The Panthers' Cameron Brantley couldn't be stopped as his speed out-matched the Dolphins. Teammate Javen Fitts nailed three of his conversion kicks while Benjamin Harris, Joseph Delia and Zedekiah Raphael each scored a try for the team.

Bulldogs

The final team to hit the magic number 29 was the Okkodo High Bulldogs. The team defeated the John F. Kennedy High Islander 29-5, similar to the Friars' victory. Fermancio Garcia led the team with two tries while teammates Saige Calvo, Josiah Mendiola and Jayven Mendiola each scored a try to boost the score. The team were also granted a penalty try to pass the Islanders. The Islanders' Mason Lim was the only player to score a try for the team.

Undefeated

The George Washington High Geckos were three points shy of joining the 29 club. The team defeated the Tiyan High Titans 26-5. The Geckos, however, join the ranks of the Friars and Panthers of remaining currently undefeated in the league.

VANESSA MALUMAY/PDN

Father Dueñas Memorial School Friars' Ian Castro makes his way to score a try as his fellow teammates cheer him on during the Guam DOE ISA High School Boys Rugby game on Nov. 5, 2022, at George Washington High School field. The Friars defeated the Simon Sanchez High Sharks 29-5.
