V	HPLO Administrator's Report  B. Sablan informed the board that there would be no administrator's report for the day but took the opportunity to introduce the deputy director, Peter John Camacho. P. Camacho added that with the commencement of Teresa Arriola's tenure at the Department of Public Health and Social Services, they intend to regularly attend meetings of various boards and commissions to ensure active engagement and support for the work conducted both in the office and by the board members. He concluded his remarks by expressing gratitude to the Chair.	HPLO	1104	Noted
VI	Chairperson's Report  A. Lape provided the Chairperson's report, noting that there had been no updates from the ASWB as they are preparing for the delegate assembly in October. She mentioned that both she and Z. Pecina had already registered for the assembly. Other than that, A. Lape indicated that there were no new developments since the previous month's meeting.	A. Lape provided an update on the rules and regulations, explaining that due to her being stateside in recent weeks, the board had not been able to meet regarding the matter. She mentioned that she would return to the island on Monday and suggested coordinating schedules to determine if the following Friday would still be suitable for a meeting. She added that they could finalize this arrangement	A. Lape	1106	Noted

VIII	Old Business offline. A. Complaint: GBSW-CO-2024-001 A. Lape addressed the complaint GBSW-CO-2024-001, referencing discussions from the previous month. She noted that the complaint was submitted anonymously, leaving no individual to follow up with. A. Lape explained that according to their draft rules and regulations and the practice act, licensees have the right to respond to or speak with the person filing a complaint. As a result, the board's policies do not allow for the consideration of anonymous complaints. After reviewing the situation, A. Lape suggested that either D. Calvo or J. Baleto take the lead in reviewing the complaint and possibly contact the licensee's employer to inform them of the complaint. The employer could then choose to investigate further or take no action, as deemed appropriate. Since the board cannot engage with the anonymous complainant, A. Lape concluded that this approach seemed to be the most prudent course of action. D. Calvo proposed that, given the inability to investigate the complaint due to the lack of required information, the board should at least acknowledge the complaint by sending a letter to the place of business. The letter would inform them of the received information, with the option to consult legal counsel on including language that leaves the decision to pursue the matter further at the discretion of the organization's management. Motion to Acknowledge the Complaint and Send a Letter to the Employer of the Licensee: D. NOAA Fisheries to Host Public Hearings on Proposed Endangered Species Act Listings for Giant Clams

NOAA Fisheries is seeking comments on their proposal to list five species of giant clams as endangered and five species of giant clams as threatened under the Endangered Species Act. In addition to the listing determinations, the proposed rule includes specific protective regulations for the five species that are proposed to be listed as threatened.

On Tuesday, September 17th, NOAA Fisheries is hosting an informational meeting and public hearing in Guam at Pacific Islands Club. The informational meeting will begin at 6:00 pm with a brief presentation by NOAA Fisheries, followed by a question and answer session during which members of the public may ask clarifying questions about the proposed rule. The public hearing will begin at 7:00 pm, when members of the public will have the opportunity to provide oral comments on the record regarding the proposed listing determination. Doors open at 5:30 pm.

In advance of the public hearing, NOAA Fisheries is also hosting a public listening session from 1:00 to 4:00 pm to provide an additional forum for members of the local community to share information about the potential impact of the proposed ESA listing determination in Guam. Like the public hearings, the listening sessions will begin with a brief presentation by NOAA Fisheries providing an overview of the proposed rule. After the presentation, participants will have an opportunity to ask clarifying questions or voice concerns about the proposed rule, which NOAA Fisheries staff will address to the extent practicable. Doors open at 12:30 pm for the listening session.

You may also provide comments on the proposed rule online at <https://www.regulations.gov/commenton/NOAA-NMFS-2017-0029-0027>. Or you may mail your comments. For addresses and more information, please see our website <https://www.fisheries.noaa.gov/action/proposed-rule-10-species-giant-clam-s-under-endangered-species-act>
