		2. Sol Esthetics & Wellness Concerns were raised regarding an applicant's establishment application, specifically related to sanitary improvements and job site inspections. The application references both a cosmetic establishment and a therapeutic massage facility, the latter of which falls outside the board's jurisdiction. Since the applicant lists her licensed individual as an aesthetician, clarification is needed on whether full cosmetology services will be performed. If so, a licensed cosmetologist must be designated as the individual in charge. Furthermore, if the intent is to operate two separate units—one for cosmetology and one for aesthetics—then two separate establishment licenses will be required. Additional clarification is being sought to ensure compliance with licensing regulations. Motion to Table: M. Tiong; 2nd: J. Blas.			Unanimously Tabled
