

Tritons beat Titans, Southern Sutteru upsets Phantoms

Pacific Daily News

The University of Guam Tritons took early control of the Triton Men's Volleyball League with a 3-1 victory over the Titans, while Southern Sutteru won in an upset of the Phantoms, 3-0, on Tuesday night at the UOG Calvo Field House.

In the opening match, the Titans came out and dominated the first set and won, 25-20, over the Tritons.

The Titans played their reserves in the 2nd set and UOG made them pay for that, winning 25-10 in a 2nd set rout.

The Titans returned to their first team in the third set, but still lost a tough set, 25-22, and the momentum, in the match.

UOG led all the way in the 4th set, as the Titans came out to gain experience for their 2nd level players in the set and lost the match, 26-16.

UOG is now 2-0 in the league while the Titans opened the league play with a 0-1 record.

Southern Sutteru vs Phantoms

In the nightcap, the Phantoms, the defending champions of the Triton League under the name of Troupe, did not look themselves against the Southern Sutteru, losing the first set, 25-20.

The Phantoms played a better set in the second frame but still could not overcome their mistakes and lost a hard fought battle in the set, 25-22.

In the 3rd set, the Phantoms seemed to lose heart and lost, 25-16, to Southern, who smelled an upset brewing and closed out the match.

The Southern Sutteru is now 1-1 in the league, while the Phantoms opened their season at 0-1.

The Triton Men's Volleyball League returns on Thursday night with 2 more matches:

• 6:30 p.m. — Phantoms vs. Titans

• 8:15 p.m. — UOG Tritons vs. Andersen Bombers
Entry into the Triton Men's Volleyball League: Adults, $3; Seniors/Non-UOG/GCC students, $2; and UOG/GCC students and kids 5 and under, free.

to win the set.

2nd set

The Geckos struggled to find their momentum at the start of the set, committing multiple net violations and letting balls drop—mistakes that allowed the Knights to gain an early edge.

Playing it safe, St. John's relied on tips and sent GW several free balls.

The Geckos stayed in the game with Besabe's powerful hits and Simina's well-placed tips into St. John's open spaces.

Despite the Knights' strong teamwork and consistent attacks, GW kept the score close, but Peters and Del Carmen came through with key kills and blocks to secure the set, 25-22, for the Knights.

3rd set

Besabe set the tone for the Geckos with an opening kill. The Knights struggled with net errors and miscommunication, forcing an early timeout.

The Geckos capitalized, building a 10-point lead through smart passing and consistent pressure.

Although the Knights responded with powerful swings, GW's energy and strong defense kept them in control.

Despite a few late mistakes, the Geckos closed out the set convincingly, 25-10.

4th set

The final set opened with both teams trading errors and keeping the score tight. The crowd fed off the intensity, especially during long rallies and plays interrupted by ceiling interference.

Both sides found openings and executed perfect plays, though miscommunication disrupted the flow on each end. With the score close down the stretch, both teams called a timeout to regroup.

Playing with full effort and aggression, the intensity continued until Besabe's decisive tip sealed the 25-21 victory for the Geckos.

"We hope to get better every game, move forward, and win the championship," Besabe said.

JV game

Similar to their varsity team, the Geckos JV defeated the Knights with a convincing 25-15, 25-20 win.
