Magicians Nabil Murday and Meesha Wong, the duo from Guam's Biba Magic Theater, have been invited to perform on the main stage at the world-famous Magic Castle in Hollywood, a coveted honor in the global magic community.

Their weeklong run at the Castle's Palace of Mystery—its largest theater—is scheduled for Sept. 2 to 7.

The invitation marks a major milestone in the pair's international journey.

"The Magic Castle was everything to me when I was starting out," Murday said. "I used to live just blocks away so I could go as often as possible. I performed there more than 20 years ago, doing close-up magic. To now return with Meesha and headline the Palace of Mystery—that's a full-circle moment."

The Magic Castle is an exclusive private club, widely considered the heart of the magic world. It has showcased legendary names such as David Copperfield, Criss Angel, Shin Lim, and even Orson Welles.

Many celebrities have frequented the club over the years, including Johnny Carson, Drew Barrymore, Johnny Depp, and Neil Patrick Harris.

"Our routines are the result of years of dedication and constant refinement. We're honored to bring that work to The Magic Castle and audiences beyond Guam," Wong said.

Based at The Westin Resort Guam, Biba Magic Theater is an interactive, close-up, comedy magic show venue known for its immersive experience.

The theater was recently awarded its eighth TripAdvisor Travelers' Choice Award, placing it among the top 10% of attractions worldwide, a reflection of years of consistent five-star guest reviews.

Though the Castle marks their biggest stage yet, both magicians emphasize that Biba Magic remains their creative home.

"Our theater is still the best place to see us perform," Wong said. "You get our full 70-minute production in our intimate venue—with stage illusions seen just a few feet away."

Biba Magic Theater will be closed from Aug. 20 through September while the duo is on tour.
