		1. Anmari Richelle Sablan Topasna – LMSW During the meeting, D. Sulat reported that J. Baleto conducted a review on July 31st of the application for LMSW licensure. The applicant graduated in May 2025 with a master's degree in social work. The applicant currently has a different last name due to marriage, and was identified now as Anmari Richelle Sablan Topasna. According to K. Lee, the necessary corrections were made, and the application was deemed complete. Motion to Approve: J. Baleto; 2nd:A. Lape.			Unanimously Approved

		4. Serene Manglona – LCSW A. Lape noted for the record that the applicant's name appears as Serene Manglona on her application. She also noted a name change, previously listed as Serene Pecha, with the change resulting from a divorce. Ms. Manglona earned her BSW from the University of Guam in 2018 and her MSW in 2021 from the University of Alaska at Anchorage. She was formerly licensed on Guam as an LBSW before relocating and, during her time on island, worked at Catholic Social Services Caridad and later held various roles within the social work field. She provided letters of reference from both colleagues and a supervisor, along with court and police clearances from Florida and a nationwide Castle Branch background check, all of which returned no concerns. She is currently licensed in Florida as a clinical social worker, with a license valid through March 2027, and submitted three verification of hours from different supervisors, exceeding the required amount for LCSW licensure on Guam. Motion to Approve: A. Purebred said in a release.

"Purebred Jiu-Jitsu's legacy and leadership inspired us from the beginning. Since 2016, our students have grown from their experiences in Guam, and now we are proud to formally join the Purebred family. This partnership gives our students a global platform, while deepening the friendship between Korea and Guam through martial arts," Professor Seong Jun Mun of Dunsan Jiu-Jitsu said.

The affiliation marks a historic milestone for both organizations, expanding Purebred's reach into Korea while strengthening Dunsan Jiu-Jitsu's ties to one of the most established academies in the Pacific.

"Together, the academies will continue to uphold the values of respect, discipline, and excellence that define Jiu-Jitsu," Purebred said.

Started with knowledge exchange

The relationship between the two academies began in 2016, when Mun and his students first visited Guam to train and exchange knowledge with the Purebred headquarters.

Over time, Purebred's achievements in the International Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu Federation, IBJJF, competition and its emphasis on leadership, discipline, and community caught Dunsan Jiu-Jitsu's attention.

Purebred said the depth of its competitive success and its role in developing martial arts leadership became a key factor in forging this partnership.

Dunsan Jiu-Jitsu has also established itself as a powerhouse in Asia's robust competition scene, with its students and coaches earning coveted spots on the Korean national team for Jiu-Jitsu International Federation, the anticipated Olympic pathway for jiu-jitsu.

The formal affiliation, finalized during Roberto's recent visit to Korea, was supported by Purebred leadership and senior representatives from Guam and Japan, underscoring the organization's unity and collective vision, Purebred said.

Tritons

quarter, with the Lady Tritons scoring 10 points while JusForFuns added eight points. UOG led, 23-14, at halftime.

But the Tritons came out in the 3rd quarter, scoring 26 points. Maria Duenas scored nine points.

The Tritons held JusForFuns to four points and led, 49-18, going into the 4th quarter.

UOG scored 22 more points in the quarter and doubled the output of JusForFuns, 11 points, for the period.

The Lady Tritons finished the season with a 2-2 record, while JusForFuns is 0-4 for their first season in the Super League.

Maria Duenas and Arriah Arceo led the Tritons with 11 points, while Amanda Uncangco added 10. The Lady Tritons had 13 players score in the game.

Arri Arceo led JusForFuns with 14 points.

Fuetsa vs BallHers

In the nightcap, Fuetsa dominated the BallHers with their speed. Fuetsa ran past the BallHers defense often to make layups in the game but also made nine three-pointers in the game.

Fuetsa led, 20-13, after the first quarter, and 41-17 at halftime. It cruised to a 78-35 victory.

Fuetsa finished the regular season with a 3-1 record and will be the #2 Seed in the playoffs.

BallHers is 1-3 and will be the #4 Seed for the playoffs.

Elysia Perez led Fuetsa with 20 points, 18 from three-point range.

Haley Banez and Cayla Williams added 14 and 13 points each.

Aniyah Cruz led BallHers with 13 points, while Kristine Villena was the other player in double figures with 10 points.

Geckos

scooped up by Jaden Es-cuadra and returned for a touchdown, giving GW an early 7-0 lead.

Although the Sharks tightened up defensively for the remainder of the first quarter, the momentum had already shifted.

GW's second score came courtesy of special teams.

A muffed punt by Sanchez was recovered deep in Sharks territory, setting up Justin Sablan for a short-yardage touchdown run to make it 14-0.

Quarterback Jace Dela Cruz then connected with Colen Ray Salas for a 29-yard touchdown strike.

into halftime.

Leon Guerrero leads second-half surge

The second half opened full throttle.

On just the fourth play, Tyjames Leon Guerrero snagged his second interception of the night and returned it 27 yards for a touchdown.

Dela Cruz continued his efficient night, finishing 4-of-8 for 107 yards and two touchdowns, including a 54-yard bomb to Rayn Rios on a wheel route.

Leon Guerrero added a two-point conversion to stretch the lead to 36-0.

Jayce Sablan capped the scoring with a 1-yard touchdown run, sealing the 42-0 rout.

Unsung heroes shine

While the stat sheet was filled with big plays, the offensive line quietly paved the way for success. Their consistent blocking allowed the Geckos to execute key plays and maintain control throughout the game.

"We started off rough, which was hard," said center Terince Leon Guerrero. "But we kept moving, kept going, and brought up the hype, and just kept pushing through."

Terince Leon Guerrero also emphasized the team's mindset.

"Personally... I don't really care about all the media and everything. [To me], it's just have fun, play football, and play the sport I love. We all love football, and it shows," he added.

With their third straight win, the Geckos continue to prove they're a force to be reckoned with this season. Their next challenge awaits, but for now, GW stands tall—undefeated and unshaken.

On the other sideline, Sanchez head coach Lukas Masnayan is leading a fresh-faced coaching staff of nine, all new to the program. With just five seniors and six juniors, the Sharks are in the midst of a rebuilding phase.

"It was just grip and grind from there. Assignments got more understood as the game progressed, and we saw who were the factors on defense that we needed to block out. That's what created opportunities and holes that running backs couldn't miss. That's what led them to hit the holes harder and read the defense," Masnayan said, reflecting on his team's second-half adjustments.

Now sitting at 1-3, Sanchez's lone win came against Okkodo (19-0), with losses to FD (63-0), Southern (52-16), and GW (42-0).

Despite the setbacks, Masnayan remains optimistic about the team's growth.

"From the first day of summer to the second half of this season, we've had some major improvement," he said. "Having a new coaching staff was a shock to the kids, it was all new to them. I can't complain about the progress they've made. All a learning process for both teams."

Panthers

some players out, they gave it their all and played with heart from start to finish."

Fellow senior Noah Harris, the lone star carry over from last season, scored the Panthers' first TD on a 9-yard double reverse in the 2nd quarter that would cut a Southern lead to 7-6.

Harris also came up big on the defensive side with a game-high 7.5 tackles.

"This win means a lot," Harris said. "We started (the season) late, got a lot of (gear) in late, but we work hard to catch up to everybody, and we showed that."

Southern's chances

Talented running back Kaden Cruz, who was the workhorse with 99 yards on 21 carries, got the Dolphins on the board first on a five-yard off tackle in the 2nd quarter.

Southern, however, found themselves trailing 12-7 into the final period, but their confidence didn't rush the tempo.

Noah Harris fights for more yards against the Dolphins.

GUAM SPORTS NETWORK

They went to Cruz for five straight carries to the left side of the line that brought them to a 1st-and-goal opportunity.

Backup QB Johnnie Brub was brought in with their power package and two strong pushes brought the ball to the Guam High 1-yard line.

But Southern, which is the most penalized team in the league, committed two costly penalties that brought the ball back to the 18.

The Panthers held strong as Rai Johnson intercepted Ghesan Gaje in the end zone on 4th and long.

The Dolphins had one last chance when Mason Calvo recovered a fumble on the ensuing drive.

But Gaje's long pass over the middle bounced off his receiver and into the hands of Polite, who sprinted down the left side for the game-sealer.

Guam High had five of their plays go for over 30 yards, something Harris credits the raw speed of some of their players.

"That's all we worked on," Harris said. "We're the fastest team on the island."
