hot today, I just wanted to stay focused and run my race," Di Ramos said. "This season has definitely been very competitive. With All-Island coming up next week, no matter the conditions, I'm preparing to show up and give it everything I have."

Barcinas defends home course

On the girls side, GW Gecko Gwenizah Barcinas rose to the occasion on her home course, claiming first place in 21:52.

with a strong finish, continuing her stellar season as one of the league's top runners.

"Today really feels like all my hard work has paid off throughout the season. I feel very accomplished winning my last regular season meet here at home," Barcinas said. "I'm ready for next week. I've trained hard for it, and I'm excited to run my race."

With both Di Ramos and Barcinas in top form, all eyes now turn to the All-Island Championship Meet, where every school will face off to determine the league's best runners.

The championship meet is set for next Monday at GW, with the boys race slated to start at 4:15 p.m., followed by the girls race

The Guam High Panthers, multiple cross country champions, are still prohibited from participating due to the federal government shutdown.

If the federal government does not reopen by this weekend, the Panthers may have to sit out of the All-Island Meet.

The quarterfinal round resulted in 3rd seed Alex Santiago and 12th seed Cruz being eliminated by Tagle to head into the semi-finals.

In similar fashion, Ponce stopped Bangs and pulled the upset of 4th seed Frank San Agustin to advance.

The semi-finals were more dramatic as Ponce took down top seed Cris Leal in two straight matches.

3rd seed Gomez Martinez proved to be a more difficult match as Tagle had to come back after losing the first match to tie it up with a win in the second game and force a roll-off, which he won, advancing him to the championship.

The championship match had good luck running with Tagle all through the game as he marked the first four frames while Ponce opened in the second, fourth, and sixth frames.

Tagle faltered in the fifth frame with a split that he failed to convert. But spares in the sixth and seventh frame and strikes in the eighth and ninth frame snuffed out Ponce's rally with the remaining frames to concede.

The victory was a bit nostalgic for the veteran Tagle, who decided to bring his Storm IQ U78 urethane ball, which had won him previous tournament titles, out of storage to give it another roll of the dice, and his instincts proved him right.

Qualifiers for the November tournament are still ongoing. For details, see Joey Miranda, Jim Pinaula, or Manny Tagle at the Pin Point Pro Shop in Central Lanes Bowling Center.
