rewarding journey” and a perfect way to close out a summer of exciting games and remarkable athletes of all ages.

“The competition, community spirit, and family atmosphere were inspiring, and we are deeply grateful to everyone who made the event possible—including our partners, sponsors, tenants, players, and audience,” Lira said. “We look forward to continuing to host events filled with giveaways and memorable experiences that bring people together and make every visit to the Mall special.”

Teams

In the women's championship game, TBD edged out Yi Nails Gelies, 8-7, to claim the title.

The winning squad consisted of Derin Stinnett, Kate Inchun, Brittany Ommen, and Brianna Crisostomo, who took home the $1,000 cash prize after emerging from a competitive five-team women's field.

The runners-up, featuring Gabrianna Hahn, Maya Torre, Kenadie Paulino, and Lana Quinata, earned $500 for their second-place finish.

In the men's division championship game, Atypical defeated BME & Sons, 14-6, to secure the championship title and $2,000 cash prize.

Team members Mark Johnson, Ben Borja, Daren Hechanova, and Joe Blas advanced through a field of 20 men's teams to claim the title.

The BME & Sons roster of Alemar Dials, Ronilo Parohinog Jr., Junard Caparida, and MonMon Lustria earned second place and $500 cash prize.

Record-high 30 free throws in 60 seconds

The tournament featured the final 60-second Free Throw Fly Away Challenge of the summer, presented by Goodwind Travel.

Jordan Madrazo emerged victorious by sinking 30 free throws in 60 seconds—averaging one shot every two seconds—earning a free roundtrip ticket to Southeast Asia on Philippine Airlines.

This was the most free throws made in a minute out of the challenges held throughout the Mall Ball 3x3 2025 Summer Circuit.

Spectators also enjoyed fan games, audience raffles, and giveaways throughout the weekend.

first set win, 25-20.

2nd set

The Eagles worked to extend their lead, while the Cougars aimed to tie the match.

The Cougars improved their communication and teamwork, delivering strong kills, while Ally Leon Guerrero stayed solid on defense, digging the Eagles' powerful attacks.

In response, Harvest began to mix in tips, looking for openings in the Cougars' defense.

Both teams maintained steady rallies and consistent energy. Academy remained determined and secured the second set, tying the match.

3rd set

Harvest opened the third set with strong serving, while DeVera kept the Cougars in the match with key kills and aces.

Harvest setter, Manca Camacho, executed well-placed tips that challenged the Cougars' defense, but Academy's hitters responded and built a slight lead.

Both teams traded points in a tightly contested set, with Ambrose making an impact at the net for the Eagles.

The Cougars faced hitting and passing errors, allowing the Eagles to gain an advantage.

Harvest extended the lead with steady attacks, but errors at the net and out-of-bounds hits gave Academy opportunities to recover.

Led by DeVera, the Cougars edged out the set, 27-25, in a hotly contested match.

“There is a lot of room for improvement,” DeVera said. “We aim to make the right decisions, stay confident, and trust each other.”

4th set

The Eagles opened the fourth set with a slight lead as Academy committed early errors. The Eagles made the most of the advantage early on, but Academy soon found their rhythm, closing the gap with strong attacks.

The Cougars remained consistent on offense, while the Eagles responded with key defensive plays.

Despite Harvest's efforts, Academy pulled ahead with effective kills and blocks, capitalizing on Eagles' mistakes to secure the game win.

Aromin added nine kills and Megan Camacho contributed six kills for Academy.

Leon Guerrero recorded 15 digs for the winning team.

purple, because of the low and atypical ceiling, it also thrilled them with the two teams trading points nearly the entire match before GW pulled ahead at 23—all to close the set at 25-23.

Harvest trailed behind by five points for much of the second set but was able to close the gap with setter Manea Camacho standing out as she visibly pushed herself to hustle more than anyone on the court for every single second touch to set up her hitters and bringing the game closer for the Eagles only to lose the set with another final score of 25-23.

Azariah Chargualaf makes a swing at the ball.

The Eagles fought for their win in the third set although communication seemed to momentarily be at a halt. The duo that rose out of Eagles Cassidy and Camacho dominated their attacks, silencing both GW's defense and the Gecko crowd in a 25-18 win.

With momentum on their side and Eagles fans sparring with GW's in loud, competitive chants, Harvest looked ready to push the match to a fifth set as their point difference outdid the mere two from GW's previous set wins on them.

Unfortunately for the Eagles, the Geckos shut down their opponent's hopes at maximizing the set number for the game. Despite some friendly collisions on the court, GW pushed themselves to the win with juniors Azariah Chargualaf and Zariah Besabe at the forefront of this final set's

"groove" as described by Chargualaf.

The two were tough for the Eagles when they stepped into their strongest points of rotation. For Chargualaf, it was her intense serves that the Eagles consistently struggled to control, while Besabe was a block that Harvest's hitters were hardly able to penetrate.

The Eagles briefly surged ahead midway through the fourth, but GW crawled back, matching Harvest point for point before sealing the night with yet another 25-23 victory.

Players of the Game Chargualaf and Besabe said the third-set loss only motivated the team.

"Honestly, when we lost that set we just knew that we had to come together as a team," Chargualaf said. "We knew that for the fourth set we had to bring up the energy [and] start off strong."

"We were very confident [and] knew we had it in the bag," Besabe said, agreeing with Chargualaf as she shared her overwhelming belief in her team. "We knew that we could beat them with the chemistry that we have."

Chargualaf also looked ahead to what will come with Tuesday's rivalry against the equally unbeaten Academy Cougars.

"Academy has a lot of hard hitters so we are going to work on picking up those deep corners and just trying to uplift our team," she said.

The undefeated Geckos will face their main competitors, the Cougars, on their home court on Tuesday, Sept. 16, with junior varsity set to begin at 5:30 p.m.

Meanwhile, the Eagles will regroup as they prepare to travel down south to face the Southern Dolphins on the same night.
