dictated the pace through sharp passing and aggressive play.

In the 26th minute, Islanders' Malcom Ogo broke through the Eagles' defensive line and buried another goal to extend the Islanders' lead to 2-0 before halftime.

"As a midfielder, you don't normally score a lot of goals," Ogo said. "This goal really means a lot to me, especially since it was my first goal of the season."

2nd half

The Eagles regrouped after the break and came out more aggressive in the second half.

Their efforts paid off just five minutes in when Eagles' Freshman Seigo Yamamoto capitalized on a dropped ball from the Islanders keeper, slotting it into the net to cut the score to 2-1.

With time ticking down, the Eagles pushed numbers forward, trying to put constant pressure on the Islanders' defense.

The match grew increasingly physical as both teams committed penalties and the Islanders' goalkeeper even picked up a yellow card late in the game.

Still, the Islanders held firm under pressure to protect their narrow lead.

"Even though the other team scored, we never dropped our intensity," Nauta said. "We focused on making sure nothing else got through. We just kept going and played 100% until the final whistle."

As the whistle blew, the Islanders erupted in celebration with their 2-1 victory, marking one of the biggest upsets of the season and propelling them further into the playoffs.

"I feel like we did an amazing job," Ogo said. "We came into this match as underdogs, and no one expected us to win, especially against the top seed. But overall, our team did extremely well today."
