match. "I loved playing with this team the whole season—I loved every match, every training session, all the players on this team, they are so supportive, always trying to bring the best out of each other. I'm so happy we got the win at the end for each other."

After 70 minutes of play, Wings FC held on to a 4-3 edge over Rovers FC in the seesaw match that saw the lead change three times.

In the final minutes of the match, momentum shifted to the Rovers FC, with a Martinez penalty kick in the 89th minute to level the match at four-all.

After referee Joshua Bamba signaled for nine minutes of added time, the Rovers sealed the win with a Martinez strike in the 90+7th minute.

Martinez gave credit to his teammates.

"It's my teammates that trusted me to score the last two goals," Martinez said. "Dev (Bachani) won

"I'm just so happy that my team trusted me to apply my skills and that it worked out for us in the end," added Martinez, who relocated to Guam in January from Colorado.

The NAPA Rovers FC

swept all men's league awards this year, winning the GFA Men's Futsal League title in February and the Summer Solstice Men's Futsal Tournament in June, and also all league individual awards.

Justin Cruz won the 2025 Budweiser G League Golden Boot, adding to his Golden Boot title from the 2024-2025 GFA Men's Futsal League.

William Fink won the 2025 Budweiser G League

Golden Glove award as the league's top goalkeeper during the regular season, and fellow goalkeeper Julius "J.R." Campos won the 2024-2025 GFA Men's Futsal League Golden Glove award.

In the league's semifinals, the Rovers won 10-1 over the Bank of Guam Strykers FC for a shot at the title against 2024 champions Wings FC, 3-0 winners over Sidekick SC in the league's other semifinal match.

In the regular season, the Rovers finished with a league-best 13-0-1 record. Wings FC finished with an 11-2-1 record, with its two regular season losses coming against the Rovers.

In the third place match, Bank of Guam Strykers FC defeated Sidekick SC 4-1 in a penalty shootout after a 3-3 level match in regulation time.

Isiah Lagutang, Andrew Stenson, and Caleb Elwell each scored once for the Bank of Guam Strykers FC in regulation time.

Giorden De Vera scored twice for Sidekick SC and teammate Napu Mesa scored the team's other goal.

In the penalty shootout, Elwell, Stenson, Manfred Preschern, and C.J. Sablan scored for the Strykers FC.

Logan Wood scored the lone shootout goal for Sidekick SC.

Following the championship match, GFA vice president Tina Esteves and Ambros Inc. marketing coordinator Elyssa Cuevas presented medals and trophies to the top two teams.

progress in the 3rd period, outscoring UOG, 27-18, for the quarter and cutting the UOG lead to 69-56. They were within striking distance.

Ken Brozo got hot for MicroFriends, scoring 15 points in the 4th quarter, and matching the UOG output for the quarter.

But overall, MicroFriends outscored the Tritons, 28-15, for the quarter and the game was tied after regulation, 84-84.

It was a close game in overtime, with both teams swapping the lead, but Vander Valentino scored six points for MicroFriends to lead them to a 97-95 win and a great comeback.

Ken Brozo led MicroFriends with 24 points, and Jose Ignacio added 21.

Janvan Naputi scored 22 for the Tritons, while Jaedon Waay added 16.

MicroFriends are now 1-1 in the Triton League, while UOG is 0-2.

Fairzesh

In the 2nd game on Sunday, Fairzesh came ready to play, and started off well against the Guam Select U17 team. They took the lead after the first quarter, 21-16.

Fairzesh kept the lead in the 2nd quarter with BJ Artui scoring 14 points in the quarter and keeping Fairzesh in the lead, with Fairzesh outscoring Guam Select, 25-23, and leading 46-39 at halftime.

The consistent Fairzesh team expanded their lead in the 3rd period, outscoring the U17ers 21-15 with BJ Artui for Fairzesh scoring another 10 points and winning the quarter, 21-15.

The U17ers tried a comeback in the final 10 minutes, putting up 27 points in the final period, but Fairzesh hung on and scored 18 points in the final period and took the win, 85-8.

BJ Artui finished with 35 points for Fairzesh, while Chris Conner added 22 points.

Guam Select U17 would have a balanced attack with Tristan Hahn scoring 16 points and Francis Jones adding 15 points and Darnell Camacho and Darnin Ecijan would score 14 each for the U17ers.

Fairzesh moved to 2-0 in the league while Guam Select U17 is now 0-2.

On Friday night, Guam Nationals defeated Team Kaya, 110-58, and KFC Bombers beat Northern Construction, 94-80.
