Derrin Gumataotao on the mound, striped a ball to left field for a stand-up double. Elias Camacho took first on a base on balls, but was forced out at second to end the inning.

"We are blessed with a lot of talent. These guys are non-stop work. They may have lost one game, but they made it not matter. Today was a matter of executing," said FD coach John Tuquero. "It's a simple equation. You work hard, the product will come out. You put yourself in the best position to be successful, and these kids understand that. They are guided by a team of coaches as well as team leaders in Saez Alvarez and Evan Acosta who keep them intense when they're supposed to, and balancing that with some fun here and there."

The Friars added four more runs in the top of the sixth inning reach the mercy rule limit. Alvarez and the FD defense got the last three batters out in order to end the game.
