"humbling," tracing back to her days as a Simon Sanchez Shark.

The one thing that has remained consistent, she added, is her being grateful for being able to play the game and achieve what she has.

"In high school, I was always bigger than most of the opponents and my teammates. [In college], I was competing for a starting spot against girls much taller and stronger than me," Sarmiento said. "It helped me understand that I needed to push myself in every area."

Once she completes her degree, Sarmiento is planning to work for a couple of months in mental health and counseling or recovery and rehabilitation.

She hopes to use her sociology and psychology degree to pursue a career in the field of social work and is currently applying for graduate programs.

"I think my time with rugby is probably going to slow down for now as I start my career as a social worker. I am open to playing different styles of rugby, and I don't think I will ever fully walk away from the sport," Sarmiento said. "I would love to come back home when I'm settled with my career. I plan to visit a couple of times to see family and friends in the next couple of months, but I will most likely be out here in the states."

Closing this chapter is a time of thanks and gratitude for Sarmiento, sending her love to "everyone back home that has cheered me on throughout these past five years."

"It's been a tremendous journey, and my time here has been well spent," she added.

Royals' defense worked to block and trap advancing Knights.

Both teams fired multiple shots that narrowly missed the net, putting the spectators on the edge of their seats.

Late in the half, a strong attempt from St. John's was denied when Royals goalkeeper Kevin Doronila leaped to deflect the ball over his head.

The half ended with the Knights leading 1-0.

Second half

With the clouds rolling in to shade the field, the players went into the second half sprinting with even more intensity. The Royals especially picked up their pace, putting the Knights on their toes.

"We just had to stay composed and keep playing better," Esteves said. "We tried to come out stronger the second half."

The game settled into a stalemate as both sides raced to win possession but struggled to finish scoring opportunities.

Frustrated players started becoming more physical, which allowed the Royals to earn two free kicks. Due to the distance, their shots sailed high over the cross-bar.

Knights Race Baden and Oliver Schaumann were crucial in the stability of the team throughout the game.

Towards the end of the game, Baden maneuvered around the Royals to take a shot, but Doronila once again came up with a crucial save.

With mere minutes left, the Royals finally broke through. The ball was in a dangerous zone for the Knights to begin with when Esteves received a pass to set him up for a clean shot.

Despite a rolled right angle, he kicked the ball with his left foot past the defenders and straight into the net, tying up the game.

Immediately, the Royals erupted in cheers of excitement.

"I felt really hyped knowing that I cannot use my right foot, so it felt really good to use my left foot and score a banger," Esteves said.

Both teams put their all in the last seconds, but it wasn't enough as the game ended tied up at 1-1.

As the season winds down, teams are looking toward the league playoffs.

"We're coming to win for sure. We're not gonna come out soft and play with a bad mindset," Esteves added.

In the following game, GW defeated St. Paul, 3-1.

Run

define the Marianas," Taijeon said.

A journey through time and nature

The race is co-organized by the nonprofit organization Sports Aid Japan and the MVA.

Sports Aid Japan organizes races for its members around Japan featuring significant sites, scenery, and history. This race is a landmark occasion for Sports Aid Japan, as it constitutes their inaugural overseas event.

The story of the Marianas is woven from the history of the indigenous CHamoru and Carolinian people, alongside centuries of Spanish, German, Japanese and American influence.

During the Japanese era, Saipan was home to nearly 30,000 Japanese citizens and flourished as a major hub for sugarcane cultivation. The legendary 50-mile (80.5 km) narrow-gauge railway once encircled Saipan, transporting sugarcane and goods—a history that endures in the landscape and spirit of the island. Similar railways supported the industry on the neighboring islands of Tinian and Rota.

Event highlights

Registration for individuals or teams is $80. The general registration deadline was Dec. 5, and the registration for Marianas residents is Dec. 12.

Individual participants must show proof of finishing a marathon in October 2022 or later (waived for team entries). Marianas residents may register in person at the MVA office on Beach Rd., I Liyang, Saipan.

The journey run traces the historic railway route, including ascents to Mt. Tapochao, the scenic northern coastline, and World War II heritage sites.

The race starts and finishes at American Memorial Park, Micro Beach, Garapan. A starting ceremony will be held at 4:30 a.m., followed by race start at 5 a.m. The finish line closes at 9 p.m. Relay teams of 2-6 members will exchange runners at designated aid stations.

Awards and amenities include:

- Digital finisher's certificate
- Official race t-shirt
- Marianas specialty product

• Pre-event reception on Jan. 16, 2026, with food, drinks, and performances

• Optional post-event party on Jan. 18, 2026, and sightseeing tours for an additional cost

The event prioritizes safety, self-sufficiency, and respect for the Marianas' natural and historical heritage. Participants must navigate using official course maps, pass all checkpoints, and carry mandatory night gear and cell phones. Additional requirements apply. A course map is available at <https://shorturl.at/HQ9j5>.

For more information and registration details, contact MVA Community Projects Coordinator Ed Diaz at communityprojects@mymarianas.com, call (670) 664-3200, or visit The Marianas Calendar at www.mymarianas.com.
