squad—Maia Palomo, Alexia Delfin, Raya Benitez, and Rylee Fajardo—soared into third place, just 52 pins shy of the Eagles.

The Eagles' second team, with Rennie Choi, Isabella Galsi, Jeongwon Lee, and Celina Kim, claimed fourth.

The spirited St. John Knights—Ryza Capati, Olivia Lee, Kristin Capati, and Carmel Mariano—rounded out the top five.

With the lanes set and the stakes higher than ever, all teams now turn their focus to the All-Island Team Bakers Finale.

strikes, nail-biting spares, and plenty of cheers as the island's best battle it out for the ultimate crown.

The Boys Bakers Team Event was on Thursday and the All-Island Singles Competition is on Dec. 9. The bowling season ends with the All-Island Bakers Team Finals on Dec. 11.

Wrestling

The girls meet ended in a 24-24 split with evenly matched competitors.

Tiyan's 119-pounder Kiyori Blanding and GW's 134-pound Laila Sablan delivered for their respective teams, each securing wins to get the energy going for the early-morning crowd.

On the boys side, GW seized the win over Tiyan at 42-36 in another close contest that saw multiple matches push into the final seconds.

'Royal Friars' dominate the Sharks

The combined force of the reigning champs—Notre Dame Royals and FD Friars—looked every bit like defending titleholders in their sweep of the Simon Sanchez Sharks.

For the Royals, nearly every wrestler came away victorious.

The Sharks' lone girls' win came from 97-pounder Ehvalene Marques, who outlasted Royal Shyloh'nei Phillips to secure the only Sanchez hand-raise of the dual.

Standing out for the Royals was MVP and captain Alieah Garrido (113 lbs.), who showcased her status with a fast 24-second pin on Shark Hannah Sumang.

The Friars delivered an even more decisive performance on the boys' side.

Although Sanchez standout Reymian Taitano (152 lbs.) earned an impressive technical fall over FD's Jason Ko, the Sharks were nowhere near generating enough momentum to counter the Friars' avalanche of points.

FD rolled to a commanding 73-5 win with an outstanding difference of team results.

Sharks vs Titans

Sanchez found far better footing in their next meet against Tiyan. The Lady Sharks secured the girls' team win with grit.

Meanwhile, the Sharks dropped the boys' meet. Regardless, both sides showed marked improvement, pushing nearly every bout to three periods and keeping the scoring tight.

In a dramatic closing—as is true wrestling heavyweight fashion—the final bout of the dual saw a Titan wrestler suffer an injury in the third period, resulting in the final Shark getting his hand raised to close out the dual.

Friars, Royals close strong vs Geckos

The "Royal Friars" ended their Senior Night with another sweep, though not as clean, taking both the girls' and boys' team wins against the GW Geckos.

For the Royals, the only blemish on the board was again at 97 lbs., where Gecko Violet Perez notched a second-period pin over her Royal opponent.

The featured match of the evening came from former teammates Friar Donovan Flores and now-Gecko Avery Atoigue, who delivered the heavyweight show-down everyone had been waiting for.

After three periods of pushing and tie-ups, the two ended their six minutes in a 1-1 tie.

With no movement at sudden victory, the boys then had to go into tiebreakers.

Flores was quick to escape during tiebreaker 1 and used the rest of the allotted time to take Atoigue down for extra points before moving onto tiebreaker 2.

Unfortunately for Atoigue, time passed him while he took the defensive position, buckling under his opponent's weight with no points in sight.

Flores took the win for the Friars after an epic heavyweight match and gears quickly shifted as the closing meets lineup stepped onto the mat—the lightweights.

Securing a greater gap in team points for the Friars, 106-lb. Kole Gambala brought the day to an end in 31 seconds to pin Gecko Gunner Cruz and get his hand raised.
