of the quarter.

Even with their leading scorer out, the Friars' deep bench stepped up to maintain the lead. They held the Islanders at just six points for the entirety of the second and entered the half with a 24-15 advantage.

2nd half

The Friars continued to control the tempo even throughout the third quarter. With Ko back on the floor, the Friars moved the ball efficiently and capitalized on key plays to get good shot attempts.

Despite the third being the highest-scoring quarter for the Islanders with 15 points, the Friars closed the quarter strong and still carried a 39-30 lead heading into the final period.

Entering the fourth, the Islanders refused to go quietly. The Islanders' offensive rhythm finally picked up, starting with a big alley oop slam dunk from Tristan Hahn to Collin Rillamas.

From there, Ecijan took over and went into overdrive. The senior guard who led the league in scoring coming into the game (28.0 ppg) caught fire and went on a 10-point run to give momentum to his team.

His effort tied the game back at 44-44 with less than two minutes remaining in the game.

With the pressure arising, Baker executed a tough and-one play to put the Friars back up 47-44. With time winding down, the Friars managed to play disciplined defense and sealed the match at 49-44.

"I'm very proud of my teammates for not folding when they [the Islanders] went on a run. Our coach has prepared us since day one for tough moments like tonight's game," Ko said.

"While they put the pressure on us, we were ready for it."

Ko gives props to the Islanders, most especially his teammates he played with on the national team, for playing a hard-fought match and never giving up.

The Friars remain undefeated and continue to hold the number one seed.

"The ultimate end goal is always a championship. But for right now, we need to go back to practice. We still have a lot of work to do, like refining our skills and just working on our game," Ko added.
