urgency, storming out to an 11-2 run and taking a 16-12 lead after the first quarter.

But once St. Paul settled in, the Warriors completely shifted the momentum.

Their defensive pressure forced the Friars into repeated halfcourt turnovers, allowing St. Paul to chip away and win the second quarter, 12-9, heading into halftime trailing just 25-24.

The third quarter proved decisive. St. Paul outscored FD, 17-10, sparked by an 8-0 run that forced a Friars timeout.

As players walked toward their benches, tempers briefly flared, leading to a technical foul against St. Paul, though no players were ejected.

“We came off a run before that,” Aisek said. “So we kind of thought they’re not used to it. They’re not used to us getting the lead over them.”

From there, the Warriors never looked back.

They closed the game with a dominant 23-13 fourth quarter, overwhelming the Friars on both ends to seal the 64-48 victory.

RJ William led St. Paul with 14 points on an efficient 60% shooting.

Sophomore standout Brez Cornelius added 10 points and four rebounds. Cornelius, named to the All-Island Second Team, showed poise well beyond his age.

“Not really, cause I’ve been playing with these boys for a long time. We got good chemistry,” Cornelius said when asked if the moment felt intimidating. “I just think we’re a good team in general.”

ble-double—15 points, 13 rebounds, and a perfect 2-for-2 from deep—but the Friars’ early momentum evaporated as turnovers piled up.

Jarret Ko and Colin Baker added 12 points each, yet FD struggled to regain control once St. Paul’s adjustments took hold.

With the win, the Warriors advance to face the JFK Islanders in the championship game.

After suffering a heartbreaking 49-48 loss to JFK in the regular season, St. Paul enters the title matchup with a renewed edge, and a massive chip on its shoulder.

spot in the championship game in what proved to be a tight matchup.

The Sharks proved that they were going to put up a fight and even came as close as 14-12 in the 2nd half.

The Geckos held their composure and managed to close out the match, 28-22, over the Sharks and seal their slot in the championship game.

Friars vs Geckos

The boys rugby championship game is officially set between the Father Duenas Friars and the George Washington Geckos, scheduled for this Saturday at 12:30 p.m. at the GW field.

With both teams entering the match undefeated, this showdown is shaping up to be a highly anticipated rematch of last year’s championship game.

Girls semifinal #1

The top-seeded Notre Dame Royals secured their place in the championship after defeating the Guam High Panthers, 22-5, in the first girls semifinal match of the evening.

The Royals entered the semis with an advantage after earning an automatic place into the top four, allowing them to bypass the quarterfinal matches that were also played earlier in the day.

The Royals capitalized on the extra rest and controlled the match to advance to Saturday’s title game.

Girls semifinal #2

The most thrilling game of the evening featured the second-seeded Academy Cougars and third-seeded Southern Dolphins.

The Dolphins struck first and came out strong in the opening half, but the Cougars responded and managed to reclaim the lead just before halftime, taking a narrow 14-12 advantage.

The second half remained a back-and-forth battle as both teams traded leads and eventually ended the second half tied at 19-19, forcing a sudden-death overtime.

In the extra five minutes, Cougars’ Alexia Sevilla managed to break free from the Dolphins’ defense and made a huge run into the try zone to seal the dramatic 24-19 victory and punch her team’s ticket to the championship game.

Royals vs Cougars

The girls rugby championship game is now set between the Royals and the Cougars who are scheduled to play at 12 p.m. this Saturday at the GW Field.
