Robbie Webber Youth League continues to empower Guam's young footballers

Pacific Daily News

The Guam Football Association, in partnership with Triple J Auto Group, continues to strengthen youth development across the island through the Robbie Webber Youth League—one of Guam's premier grassroots football programs dedicated to nurturing the next generation of athletes.

Designed to promote, foster, and develop youth football for all of Guam, the Robbie Webber Youth League provides boys and girls ages 6 to 17 with opportunities to learn the game, build confidence, and develop teamwork both on and off the field, GFA said in a media release.

The league operates two seasons each year—Spring (February to April) and Fall (September to December)—giving young players consistent opportunities to compete, grow their skills, and experience the excitement of organized football.

Youth athletes participate across multiple divisions including Under 6, Under 8, Under 11, Under 14, and Under 17 categories, allowing players to develop alongside peers at similar stages of their football journey.

Beyond competition, the Robbie Webber Youth League plays a critical more than just a game—it's seeing my daughters develop character, confidence, and a love for something that brings them joy."

Players themselves echo that sentiment. "What I love about playing football is making new friends and having fun at the same time," said Dylan Arceo, a U14 player with the Tumon Typhoons. "It has helped build my confidence and I appreciate the support I get from my teammates."

From a development standpoint, the league remains a cornerstone of Guam's football future.

"As sport continues to grow within our region, it's important for the entire football community to be engaged in competition," said Tumon Typhoons head coach Brandon Sana of the U17 Girls team. "The RWYL league is an absolutely critical component in ensuring the growth of the sport. Thousands of youth athletes, whether recreational or competitive, develop through this playing opportunity. Football will soon be the number one sport in our region, and the RWYL is a major reason for that. Thank you Triple J Auto Group RWYL, and have a great season footballers."

role in developing Guam's football community. The program also supports coaching and referee development pathways, providing opportunities for youth and adults to pursue certifications and training that strengthen the island's football ecosystem, GFA said.

All matches are held at the Guam Football Association National Training Center in Harmon, where multiple fields allow games from different divisions to take place throughout the day, creating a vibrant and family-friendly environment for supporters to cheer on Guam's young athletes.

Interest in youth football continues to grow. For the Spring 2026 season alone, 1,366 players have registered to participate in the Robbie Webber Youth League, reflecting the strong enthusiasm among Guam's youth and families for the sport.

For many families, the impact of the league goes far beyond the field.

"Playing football has been such a positive experience for my girls," said Antonette Arceo of the Tumon Typhoons, whose daughters compete in the U8 and U14 divisions. "It's not just about the sport itself, but about what it's teaching them along the way. Through soccer they're learning discipline, teamwork, resilience, and confidence. They're discovering that hard work pays off and that sometimes you win and sometimes you learn."

She added, "As a parent, it means a lot to see them grow both on and off the field. Soccer has given them a place to build friendships, stay active, and challenge themselves. I love watching them support their teammates and push themselves to get better. For me, it's event.

The runners will carry the "Flame of Hope" into the opening ceremony of the 50th Annual Special Olympics Guam Track & Field event, symbolizing unity, inclusion, and support for the athletes, the District Court said in a media release.

The ceremonial lighting of the torch will take place at 5 a.m., signaling the official start of the day's events.

"The District Court of Guam encourages the community to come out and show their support along the route and at Okkodo High School, as runners carry the flame forward in celebration of the athletes and the inclusive spirit of Special Olympics Guam," the District Court added.

In the spirit of the Special Olympics Athlete Oath, "Let me win. But if I cannot win, let me be brave in the attempt."
