en Mendiola to push the opening set to the limit.

Following an Eagle error, the Friars claimed the set, 26-24, on an ace by Egurrola.

Guerrero's accurate setting managed the offense to secure the sweep, with Aguon leading the way with 11 kills.

"Coming into this match, we were missing two key players in Saul Bamba and Dom Cruz," Aguon said. "With them out, we all needed to step up."

Aguon added that while it is a long season, the team must improve its communication to function as one unit by the end of the year.

Egurrola finished the night with six kills, an ace, and two blocks, while Mendiola added five kills and two blocks for the defending champions.

The Eagles dropped to 3-1 despite strong performances from Reyes and Dungca, who contributed 11 kills each.

Both teams return to action on April 10. Harvest will host the Okkodo Bulldogs, while the Friars will host Guam High.

In the junior varsity matchup, the Friars defeated the Eagles in three sets: 25-11, 24-26, 25-19.

thon, though not the first race he competed in the region.

In March, he ran the Skechers Saipan Marathon 2026, also finishing first with a time of 2:45:53.

Nakajima told the Pacific Daily News that the round trip from Tumon to Adelup is a series of uphill and downhill runs made more difficult given that he's pushing an occupied stroller the whole 13.1-mile course.

"[It's] a very tough course, especially with a stroller," he said.

The father said he always runs with his baby and his wife Tomomi, 36.

Tomomi was the first female finisher of the Ko'ko' Half Marathon and finished seventh overall.

"I train hard with my baby, so I want to become a champion with my baby someday," he said. "Today my dream came true."

Following about a minute and a half behind Nakajima was fellow Japanese runner Shohei Miyamoto, at 1:18:42.

Mandell, first Guamanian half-marathon finisher

Local middle-distance runner and long-time Ko'ko' Road Race veteran Derek Mandell was the first Guamanian to cross the finish line Sunday morning.

Mandell finished third, about two minutes behind Miyamoto, with a time of 1:20:28.

He said this was four minutes faster than his run last year.

On being the top Guam finisher, he said he felt good, adding that the competition this year from off-island competitors was very strong.

"I was happy to finish amongst them," he said.

He said he faced some "pretty decent headwind"

just after the turnaround, coming back onto Marine Corps Drive, though it provided a bit of cooling to curb the humidity.

What stood out to Mandell was the number of runners this year, despite the looming typhoon.

"People are really excited to run, and they'll find a way to get their run in before they got to do their preparations," he said. "It's fun to see that, but at the same time after this, I think we're all going to be prepping our houses and everything."

Protecting Guam's ko'ko' bird

GVB's signature Ko'ko' Road Race started with the core mission to spread awareness for the plight of the island's territorial bird, the Guam rail or ko'ko', a flightless bird endemic to Guam.

The ko'ko' faces extinction due to the introduction of brown tree snakes in the 1950s shortly after World War II.

Conservation efforts are currently ongoing to revive the ko'ko' population, along with the Guam kingfisher, or sihek.

VII	New Business	A. Complaint: 1. GBED-CO-2026-01  Dr. Rapadas reviewed an anonymous complaint submitted the previous month that broadly alleged concerns regarding dental assistants, auxiliaries, and hygiene practices but lacked specific details, including the identification of any dentist, clinic, or individual involved, and therefore provided no basis for investigation or follow-up. The Board discussed that, in accordance with established policy and regulatory procedures, anonymous complaints without identifiable parties or sufficient information cannot be acted upon, as there is no means to verify claims, gather evidence, or initiate disciplinary action against a licensee. B. Sablan reaffirmed the HPLO processes, and that such matters fall outside the Board's standard investigative scope. She confirmed that anonymous complaints are not entertained due to the absence of actionable information. The Board concluded that the complaint should not proceed, and a motion was made to dismiss Complaint CO2026-01 on the grounds that it was anonymous and lacked the necessary specificity required for investigation.  Motion to Dismiss: Dr. Ha; 2nd: Dr. Supit.	GBED	1521	Dismissed
