The Knights continued attacking as Peyton Kinsella sent an accurate cross to Yzabella Saddo, who tapped the ball into the back of the net in the 54:29 minute.

“I was trying to time my run perfectly with the cross,” Saddo said. “I predicted Peyton would play a low driven ball across the box, so I made sure I was ready.”

out victory as they stayed composed throughout the match, limiting the Geckos' attacking chances.

Elana Basco anchored the defense as well as Saya Green, keeping the defense afloat, recording five saves.

“We started the game strong and focused on maintaining possession,” Basco said. “We were able to move the ball well, create crossing opportunities, and our forwards did a great job finishing early chances, which helped set the tone for the match.”

Basco said losing the championship last year definitely gave the Knights the motivation this year.

“It showed us what it takes to compete and win, and only made us hungrier to improve as a team,” she added.

Swimming

The invitational, now a cornerstone of the annual swim calendar, brought together the dedication and talent of athletes from Manhoben Swim Club, Guam Typhoons Swim Club, Marlins Swim Club and Tsunami Swim Club.

The dedication of athletes, coaches and supporters has fueled this progress.

With each stroke, the future of swimming on Guam looks brighter than ever, organizers said.

“I’m so proud of these kids. All these years that I’ve dedicated to swimming, these moments make it all worthwhile—seeing our community come together and even more, seeing different islands come together,” Edwin K.W. Ching said in a statement. “I’m hopeful that this event will only continue to grow.”

Event organizers also thanked Saipan Swim Club and Tsunami Saipan for coming out to Guam and adding to the excitement.
