

FD

The Royals came out with their offense running smoothly in the opening set behind the attacks of Takoda Piper and Gabriel Duenas.

ND jumped ahead and the Friars were unable to catch up, and it didn't help that FD committed eight hitting errors.

"ND played so differently than when we faced them in the regular season," Friars head coach Steve Pangelinan said. "They were very improved, and played so consistently. We had to buckle down and minimize our errors in order to match them."

Buckle down they did. Their hitting picked up and the errors went down, the formula necessary for a talented group like the Friars to cruise through the next three sets that turned a potential upset to a sure-shot advancement to the championships.

Saul Bamba found his groove and was reaching heights the ND opponents couldn't in finishing with a game-high 17 kills.

Jace Aguon added a dozen kills and Antonio Egurrola tossed in 10 kills.

Last step: The finals

FD is no stranger to this. Always a powerhouse in boys volleyball, it is championship or bust.

With the game on neutral ground in the spacious Southern High gym, the Friars and Knights will lay it all on the line for the 2026 title.

"St. John's just beat a tough Tiyan team in three sets," Pangelinan said. "I expect the final match against them to be very tough."

Harry Vitale, who led his team with six kills and three blocks.

Outside hitter Eric Kwon contributed five kills.

"The most important thing we focused on was playing for each other. We are going to prioritize that in our next game against FD. If we do that, we will play at the same level we did tonight," Kwon said.

The Friars have a history of performing well on the big stage. Last season, they faced a similar challenge from a senior-heavy Harvest Eagles team but won in four sets.

"We are going to have to block out their crowd and feed off the cheers from our crowd. We also have to give feedback during the game and listen to our coaches," Vitale said.

In the semifinals, Tiyan's Nathan Aguiqui recorded a game-high eight kills, while teammate Travis Barcinas added six.

The Titans will face the Royals in the consolation game for third place this Thursday.
