Ibanez claims Golden Boot, Green earns Golden Glove Honors

Guam Football Association also recognized the G-League's top individual performers.

Hagen Daz Islanders FC forward Aubrey Ibanez captured the Women's G-League Golden Boot after a remarkable season that saw her score 66 goals, finishing well ahead of the competition and helping lead Islanders FC to a third-place finish in the standings, GFA announced.

Meanwhile, Saya Green of Bank of Guam Strykers FC earned the Golden Glove Award after an outstanding campaign between the posts. Green recorded five clean sheets while conceding just 17 goals across 1,080 minutes played, helping anchor one of the league's strongest defensive units.

"The performances of Aubrey and Saya reflect the quality and talent present throughout the Women's G-League," GFA President Valentino San Gil said in a statement. "Their accomplishments are a testament to their hard work, dedication, and commitment to excellence. We congratulate both players on outstanding seasons."
