

Soccer pitch proposed for Barrigada Heights

Pacific Daily News

Barrigada Heights could see a new soccer pitch and community sports and recreational facilities, if a bill introduced by Sen. Shawn Gumataotao becomes law.

Bill 326-38 would authorize the Barrigada Mayors Office to lease an almost 7-acre parcel, Lot 5382N-R40 in Barrigada Heights, to the Guam Football Association for up to 30 years, to build the facilities.

GFA, Guam's officials governing body for the sport of football—soccer to Americans—could also work out agreements on sale advertising signage, scheduling of games and events, and other matters as part of the lease.

The village mayors office would have full authority over the planning, construction procurement, and upkeep of the facilities, if public funds are used, the bill states.

mayor would be authorized to seek funding from public and private sources, including grants, donations, and appropriations.

Barrigada's mayor could also provide additional community amenities like walking paths, a children's playground, and community pavilions or gathering areas, if space permits, the bill states.

A public hearing was held for the bill last Tuesday.

"Bill 326 is our latest effort to prioritize public land for public use," Sen. Gumataotao said in a statement. "GFA has the resources to invest in additional sports facilities across our island in support of Guam's families, and the organization made it clear through discussions regarding a similar proposal a few months ago that outside of their Agat and Talofofo facilities, Guam was granted at least two projects, but the organization does not have property for these initiatives."

Gumataotao in March got legislation passed to let the Hagatña Mayors Office lease land in the island's capital for a soccer pitch and beach volleyball court.

Coca-Cola supports McDonald's of Guam's inaugural golf classic
