Calling All Ghouls and Giggles: Dress Up, Show Up, and Celebrate at the 4th Annual Division of Children's Wellness Halloween Fair

Hagåtña, Guam – The Department of Public Health and Social Services (DPHSS) Division of Children's Wellness (DCW) invites the entire island community to celebrate the season at the 4th DCW Annual Halloween Fair on Saturday, October 11, 2025, from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at the Micronesia Mall Center Court.

The fair is FREE and open to all, offering families and friends a chance to enjoy a safe, festive day filled with activities. Children ages birth to 13 are encouraged to come dressed in their best costumes for the Children's Costume Contest at 12:15 p.m. Contest winners will be recognized in the following categories: Most Original, Most Creative, Scariest, and Cutest, with an additional winner chosen by an honorable guest.

Throughout the day, attendees can look forward to:

- Raffle prizes for families and children
- A lively children's costume contest
- Live entertainment and performances
- Interactive stations designed for children
- Community activities and festive surprises

"The Halloween Fair is a special tradition that brings joy to children and families while strengthening community spirit in a safe space," said Director Theresa C. Arriola. "We encourage everyone to join us for a day of fun, creativity, and connection."
