DPHSS and the Guam Comprehensive Cancer Control Coalition Hosts May 15 Planning Retreat Meeting

Hagåtña, Guam – The Department of Public Health and Social Services' (DPHSS) Guam Comprehensive Cancer Control Program in partnership with the Guam Comprehensive Cancer Control Coalition, will convene its member Planning Retreat Meeting on Friday, May 15, 2026.

The coalition consists of community advocates, partners, and individuals dedicated to reducing the burden of cancer on Guam. The coalition's work is carried out through three focused action teams: the Prevention, Screening & Treatment Action Team (PSAT), the Data & Research Action Team (DRAT), and the Survivorship & Quality of Life Action Team (SQOL). Each team will share progress on current initiatives and outline collaborative next steps to advance the Guam Comprehensive Cancer Control Plan 2025–2030.
