DPHSS Announces Updated DHAPP Service Location

Know where to go for homelessness assistance and poverty prevention services

Hagåtña, Guam – The Department of Public Health and Social Services (DPHSS) announces that the Division of Homelessness Assistance and Poverty Prevention (DHAPP) is now serving the community from its new office located at 130 Father Dueñas Avenue in Hagåtña, formerly the Kamalen Karidat Building adjacent to Julale Shopping Center.

Following its transition from the former ITC location, DHAPP has completed its relocation and encourages community members, service providers, and partner agencies to update their records with the division's new office location and contact information.
